Most merciful

Jesu my Sweete Sauoure & most gracious lorde god I thanke the hyghly for that thou hast create and made me of nought / and for thy manyfold benefites and graces that thou hast gyuen vnto me here in this Worlde befor many other not only preseruyng me from all vyie and lothsom sicknesses / from shame and many myffortunes / but also geuynge vnto me most vnworthy / many great and inrecom-pensable gyftes. All Whiche gyftes moste Sweete Jesu I wote verely and knowlege mekely comes of thy goodnesse only / and nothing of my deseruyng. Wherfore most myghty lorde god / my creatour / my redemer / & most mercifull Sauour Jesu chryst / Whiche whan we were lost bought and re-demed vs agayn with thyne oone precious blod / haue mercy of me most vnworthyest wretche / Which hath comytted and done manyp

many great synes and trespasses agaynst thy merciful goodnes/and hath impyment thy gyftes of grace that thou so louyngly didst giue vnto me/and hath so vngentyll behauyd my selfe to the/that surely I am moche vnworthy to be called thy son/ yet most benygne lord Iesu/ thou art so boun-tyfull of thy mercy and pyte that not with-standyng my vnyndnes toward the yet durynge my lyfe I wyl put my hole trust and confidence in thy mercy. For thou commaundist (I wote) to crye and call vpon the/that thou therby myght haue occasion to gyue vnto vs thy most gracious gyftes.
Wherefore moste glorious Iesu why the for sakest no synner/ but gladly receyuest to thy mercy all them that in helpe wyl calle for it. Gyue me now and euer grace to dre-de the/ to loue the and to serue the/ with all my harte and mynde/ with all my wyl & reason/ with all my myght power & strength of body and soule. And graunte me good lord that of all myne actes & dedes done to thy thy Wp'll and pleasure I may rende all þ honour laude and prayspnges vnto the / as vnto Whome of verp de Wtp it belonge eth. For in me I cōfesse nothp'ng but sp'ne wretchednes. And now I beseeche þ most gracious lorde of thyn infinite mercp / let all my mp'pent l'pse in t'pines past be forgotten before the / that I haue consumed & spent verp pl / & send me good perseuerance of vertuous l'p'p'ng / that I may now frō henceforth order my l'pse here in this vale of my l'p'p'ng to thy p'casure. First with contricion to make a clene & a pure confession Also my l'wete sauour graunt me t'pme & space here to do penaūce & de w' satisfaccion with all the c'p'z'stances belongp'ng ther-to. And that I may recepue thy holp body in forme of breade verp god and man o' I departe out of this worlde in cleane l'pse / For the cōfort and saluacion of my sp'nfūl soule. And most merciful Iesu I pray the to p'p'serue me from lodep'n de th / and sende me my right mp'pude at my departp'ng. W stedfast faith/very trew hope/and feruent charite/and moost swete lord Iesu christ gyue me now thy mercifull ayde and gra ce to pursue and folow alwayes thy Wyl and commaundementes / & to eschewe myne owne feaple Wyl and despyres / & the false entymentes of our mortall enemy þe fend So that in thy syghte I may appere to be as I am namyd/thy loth and a trew chris ten man. And that after this lyfe I may come to the syghte of thy moost glorious face in heuen. Amen. pater noster. Ave maria. Credo in deum.
